The Team

Eunice Na

Eunice is a physics major turned programer. She worked on the video chat systems and took on a full stack role for this project.

Github

Bryce Bortree

Bryce is an avid writer and majored in creative writing. She worked on the data base and the message boards with an ephasis on back end.

Github

Nathaneil Giron

Nat recently moved to seattle from guam. He worked on the file sharing system and took on a full stack role on the project as well.

Github

Jacob Barrus

By far the youngest on the team Jacob took on the design and front end of the project.
